SCHOOL NEWS

The Maysville Public Schools will open Tuesday morning at eighty-thirty o'clock.

As usual, we would rather that the children do not purchase their books until after that time as it is best that they get the printed list from the teacher showing just what each particular child needs.

To prevent overcrowding in the Forest Avenue and Center Graded buildings we are expecting everyone to start their children to the building of the district in which they reside. After school has begun, if there should arise the need for transferring pupils to some building other than the one located in your district, such changes will be made.

Every building has just recently been cleaned from basement to roof, all seats have been scrubbed inside and out with strong disinfecting fluid, walls have been swept, floors mopped, woodwork washed and on Saturday every room in the city will be fumigated. The latter part of the week H. M. Clark, Chairman of the Sanitation Committee, will go around on a tour of inspection putting his official O. K. on all satisfactory work. It is our intention that the school room be the most sanitary place the child frequents.

High School Examination
 On Saturday morning beginning at

Are your present glasses satisfactory? Perhaps that is why you are having trouble with your eyes. Again they might be causing your headaches. We will examine your eyes and duplicate your broken lenses.

All pupils from the Parochial Schools, Mr. Berry's Summer school and any county pupils without diplomas should be present at this time.

EMBARGO ORDERS

ISSUED BY ROADS AS WILSON APPEALS FOR RELIEF FROM THREATENED STRIKE

President Submits Revised Arbitration Plans To Congress — Railway Heads Favorable To New Program.

Washington, August 29—President Wilson, laying the railway strike situation before Congress today with recommendation for legislation, advanced the crisis to a place where the next developments depend upon two points. They are:

Whether the legislation he proposes can be passed?

If enacted will it be effective to prevent a strike already called for 7 a. m., September 4?

Neither of these questions can be answered tonight.

The Brotherhood heads themselves, announcing their intention to fight certain portions of the President's program, are at loggerheads over whether its enactment would prevent the strike.

The railway presidents, favorable to President Wilson's plans, in the main, think it would make it difficult for the strike to begin.

Developments Follow Quickly

Meanwhile, although negotiations between the employers and men were broken off today by the rejection of the railway presidents' latest proposal for arbitration, President Wilson is continuing efforts to bring the two sides together, on some form of agreement. Efforts which might well be described as almost superhuman are being exerted to that end.

When the Brotherhood leaders this morning rejected the latest proposal to the railroads and definitely set the strike for Labor Day, without further notice, President Wilson decided to lay the whole situation before Congress. Before a joint session of the House and Senate and with a solemn recital of the distress and disaster which would bring to the country, the President proposed a plan of legislation. This is the proposal in his own language:

First—Immediate provision for the enlargement and administrative reorganization of the International Commerce Commission along the lines embodied in the bill recently passed by the House of Representatives and now awaiting action by the Senate; in order that the commission may be enabled to deal with the many great and various duties now devolving upon it with a promptness and a thoroughness which are with its present constitution and means of action practically impossible.

Second—The establishment of an eight-hour day as the legal basis alike of work and of wages in the employment of all railway employees who are actually engaged in the work of operating trains in interstate transportation.

Third—The authorization of the appointment by the President of a small body of men to observe the actual results in experience of the adoption of the eight-hour day in railway transportation alike for the men and for the railroads; its effect in the matter of operating cost, in the application of the existing practices and agreement to the new conditions, and in all other practical aspects, with the provision that the investigators shall report their conclusion to the Congress at the earliest possible date, but without recommendation as to legislative action; in order that the public may learn from an unprejudiced source, just what actual developments have ensued.

Fourth—Explicit approval by the Congress of the consideration by the Interstate Commerce Commission of an increase of freight rates to meet such additional expenditures by the railroads as may have been rendered necessary by the adoption of the eight-hour day, and which have not been offset by administrative readjustments and economies, should the facts disclosed justify the increase.

Fifth—An amendment of the existing Federal statute which provides for the mediation, conciliation and arbitration of such controversies as the present by adding to it a provision that, in case the methods of accommodation now provided for should fail, a full public investigation of the merits of every such dispute shall be instituted and completed before a strike or lockout may lawfully be attempted, and Sixth—The lodgement in the hands of the executive of the power, in case of military necessity, to take control of such portions and such rolling stock of the railways of the country as may be required for military use and to operate them for military purposes, with authority to draft into the military service of the United States such train crews and administrative officials as the circumstances require for their safe and efficient use.

HUGHES MAY NOT BE IN LEXINGTON TUESDAY

If the strike or railroad trainmen, engineers, conductors and firemen is called Monday morning, as has been ordered, according to dispatches from Washington, there is hardly a possibility that there will be any opening of the Republican State campaign at Lexington Tuesday afternoon, as Charles E. Hughes, the Republican candidate, will be marooned in Nashville, where he speaks Monday evening, without a chance of reaching Lexington in time to keep his engagement there.

According to the plans, as announced by the committee in charge of negotiations, a general strike of the railroad operatives becomes effective at 7 o'clock Monday morning. Mr. Hughes will be in Nashville Monday evening, about 250 miles from Lexington by the shortest route. It would be practically impossible for Mr. Hughes to reach Lexington from Nashville by Tuesday afternoon, even by automobile.

Present plans are for Mr. Hughes to arrive in Lexington by special train early Tuesday morning, coming from Nashville via Louisville over the L. & N. He is scheduled to leave Lexington for Cincinnati by special train shortly after 6 o'clock Tuesday evening.

MAY DECLARE EMBARGO

Mr. H. S. Ellis, local agent for the L. & N., has received word that on account of the liability of a general railroad strike occurring September 4, that will completely tie up traffic, it is possible the Louisville and Nashville Railroad will have to declare, a complete embargo within the next 48 or 60 hours.

HELD LUCKY NUMBER

Mrs. W. L. Traxel was the holder of the lucky number in the Merz Bros. drawing. The number was 1186. She will receive a phonograph.

HUGHES NOT TO SPEAK AT PARIS

The report emanating from Paris several days ago that Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential nominee, would speak in that town on the evening of September 5, after delivering his address in Lexington, was unauthorized by the Republican State Committee and is not correct, according to announcement made by Republican leaders yesterday.

WILL MEET HERE

The Bracken Mission Board will meet in all day session at the First Baptist Church in this city Friday. The board is composed of 50 members from the 30 churches in the 12 counties comprising the Bracken Association of Baptists.

TRAVEL HEAVY

Returning travelers say that on account of the threatened strike of the railroad men, all passenger trains are crowded to their limit with persons returning home fearing the walkout by the brotherhoods.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Third Street M. E. Church will meet this afternoon at 2:30 at the church. A full attendance of the members is desired as this is the last meeting before conference.

THE NORTH HAS TO PAY

There was much significance to the taxpayers of the northern states in the answer of a southern Democratic congressman to Former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, who asked about certain appropriations, "Well, it doesn't make any difference how we vote for expenditures, you fellows north have got to pay them." When a southerner refers to the north he includes the west.

Nothing could more correctly describe the attitude of his party than these words of a southern Democrat. It means that the interests of northern states, representing double the population and fifteen times the wealth of a similar group of southern states, are to be utterly under their domination as far as legislation is concerned, if the Democratic party remains in power.

The south has had its fling during the past four years. It has controlled practically all of the important committee chairmanships in congress; President Wilson is a sectionalist, and so is the secretary of the treasury, McAdoo. The controller of the treasury, John Skelton Williams, is also sectionalistic in his views, and it is due to McAdoo and Williams that so much favoritism has been shown to the south by the Federal Reserve board. There has never been such a pork regime in the history of congress, and the smear of the rind is found on all our important legislation since 1913.

A word to the wise ought to be sufficient.—Illinois State Journal.

THEY WANT A CHANGE

A Democratic paper asks: "Do the American people want a change in the present tariff law?" and then proceeds to answer its own question thus: "Ask a dozen well-assorted people, and you will find that the majority are in favor of taking the tariff question out of politics by way of a competent non-partisan tariff commission."

The answer which the American voters seem morally certain to make to the above question will be that they do want a change in the present tariff law. The present tariff law is an utter failure as a revenue producer and it is a free trade law which gives no protection to the American producer be he farmer, manufacturer or artisan working for wages.

So far as taking the tariff out of politics by way of a non-partisan tariff commission, the voters of the country will scarcely look to the Wilson Administration to accomplish that, because one of the first performances of the Democratic Congress was the abolition of just such a commission which was created by a Republican Congress during President Taft's Administration.

The American people not only want a change in the present tariff but they want an entire change in the present National Administration, President, Senate and House of Representatives, to make sure that they will get it.—Brooklyn Standard-Union.

A news item states that Irvin S. Cobb is to spend the last two weeks of the campaign speaking for Wilson. Well, we always admired Irv. as a writer, but we believe that it will take more than his humor to take the bitter taste of the Democratic administration out of the minds of thinking voters.

Having delayed thus long about it, why not put the Wilson notification meeting over to November 8 and then tell him all at once that he has been renominated and defeated?

The Hughes campaign through the West succeeded in putting the administration on the defensive with the first two speeches. And now the administration is on the run.

NEW YORK LETTER

(From Our Regular Correspondent)

What Did Roger Report?—Roger Sullivan, Democratic National Committeeman of Illinois, "blew in" at Democratic headquarters this week and had a somewhat protracted conference with Chairman McCormick. When he came away he looked sour and disgusted and would make no explanation of his visit. A few minutes later there was evidence of great activity in the Chairman's office. Messengers were rushed to his home for a suit-case and about town on various errands and within two hours the Chairman was on a train headed for Chicago. The suddenness of his departure and Sullivan's manner aroused the curiosity of the New York reporters and determined efforts were made to learn the occasion of the visit and the departure. With a forced smile, Mr. McCormick insisted that "Mr. Sullivan reports everything going most satisfactorily in the West," and nothing further regarding Sullivan's message has been learned. Other Democratic leaders admit that Sullivan must have reported something which aroused the anxiety of the Chairman but they would not venture a guess as to what it was.

A Sad Disappointment—Secretary McAdoo, who is enjoying the cool weather of New England and at the same time seeking light on the manner in which the Farm Loan Bank legislation is being received, has suffered a serious disappointment. It was expected that the enactment of this legislation would constitute one of the strongest talking points of the administration in this campaign. On the contrary, Mr. McAdoo is finding that there has not been and is no demand for a government bank to make loans to farmers in the New England states. He has visited Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts and in each has been informed that the New England farmer can get all the money he can reasonably expect from the savings banks and similar institutions with which he is accustomed to do business. It is becoming evident that only where the Federal Loan Bank is prepared to loan money at considerably less than its market value will it be particularly welcomed. It is possible conditions may prove different in the west, but the Wilson administration can make little capital out of this piece of legislation in New England.

Wilson Will Campaign—The White House announced that President Wilson would not go on the stump. Then Gov. Hughes started on his western tour and began to expose the Wilson administration record and it was promptly announced that the President would go on the stump and "go over much the same ground as had Gov. Hughes." Then Chairman McCormick rushed over to Washington and, after a talk with the President, announced that Mr. Wilson considered it "incompatible with the dignity of the Presidency" to go on the stump. Now Mr. McCormick has announced in Chicago that President Wilson will speak there and in a number of other sections of the west before the election. All of which recalls the plaint of the Democratic member of Congress who, when appealed to to stand by the President, replied "It's pretty hard to stand by a man who won't stand still."

Truth Will Out—Those Democrats who bitterly resented the Republican charge that the President advocated a tariff commission purely as a matter of political expediency have become deeply concerned over their realization that they have provided salaries of only $7,500 a year for the six members of the Tariff Commission, whereas the members of the Farm Loan Board will receive $10,000 a year. This is, of course, simply a further proof that the Democrats generally have little faith in a Tariff Commission and that in creating it they were merely obeying the President and not enacting what they regarded as legislation of importance. An effort has been made to put responsibility for the lower salary of the tariff commissioners on the Republicans, who have extremely little faith in a tariff commission to be appointed by President Wilson—but investigation proves that the man who was really responsible for $7,500 salaries is Rep. Cullup, of Indiana, a tariff for revenue only Democrat. As compared with the $12,000 a year of the Federal Reserve Board and the $10,000 a year of the Farm Loan Board, the $7,500 of the Tariff Commission looks small.

Congress Spends $2,350,000,000—From out the maze of confusing terms and conflicting charges, it is now possible to give the correct figures showing the amount of public money which the session of Congress just drawing to a close has spent. It is $2,347,127,699, or in more intelligible terms 2,347 million dollars. This is the total to date of the money which this session has "appropriated" plus that which it has authorized to be expended, but the bills for which will not come in until after the close of the next fiscal year. The total appropriations amount to $1,710,482,722. To this figure must be added "authorizations" for which appropriations are not made, but for which Congress has obligated itself to make appropriations, of $636,643,977. The total "appropriations" of the last Republican Congress (two sessions) amounted to $2,054,000,000. The appropriations of this Congress (two sessions) will total at least $3,400,000,000. The increase in the appropriations due to preparedness is $390,000,000, which leaves an increase of $200,000,000 of actual appropriations over last session, to be accounted for entirely by what Senator Smoot has termed "unequaled extravagance combined with inefficiency unsurpassed." The Democratic platform contains two pertinent statements. One reads:

"We denounce the profligate waste of money wrung from the people by oppressive taxation through the lavish appropriations of Republican Congresses, which have kept taxes high and reduced the purchasing power of the people's toil. We demand a return to that simplicity and economy which befits a Democratic government and a reduction in the number of useless offices, the salaries of which drain the substance of the people."

The other reads: "Our pledges are made to be kept while in office as well as to be relied upon during the campaign."

The Democratic managers have been sending distress messages to Washington, begging their leaders in Congress to try to make some better fiscal showing. The above figures and quotations show the reason why.

Unduly Suspicious?—According to reports from Washington the President and his advisors are indignant because the union labor men who are conducting the railway negotiations have let it leak out that they are skeptical of Mr. Wilson's sincerity, that they regard his professed friendliness to labor with some measure of suspicion. Possibly they should not have let their skepticism leak out, but it is not surprising that they should be skeptical and suspicious in view of what Dr. Wilson has himself said about labor and labor unions. Said Dr. Wilson on June 13, 1909, in a public address, "You know what the usual standard of the employee is in our day. It is to give as little as he may for his wages. Labor is standardized by the trades unions and this is the standard to which it is made to conform. No one is suffered to do more than the average workman can do; in some trades and handicrafts no one is suffered to do more than the least skilful of his fellows can do within the hours allotted to a day's labor, and no one may work out of hours at all, or volunteer anything beyond the minimum. I need not point out how economically disastrous such a regulation of labor is. It is unprofitable to the employer that in some trades it will presently not be worth while to attempt anything at all. He had better stop altogether than operate at an inevitable loss." And on March 18, 1907, Woodrow Wilson said, in a public speech: "We speak too exclusively of the capitalistic class. There is another, as formidable an enemy to equality and freedom of opportunity as it is, and that is the class formed by the labor organizations and leaders of the country."

The Man Behind—"That it was 'the man behind the words' which lent force to President Cleveland's ultimatum to England regarding Venezuela, and to President Roosevelt's ultimatum to Germany also regarding Venezuela, while it has been 'the man behind the words' who has been responsible for the contempt accorded by various foreign nations to the protests of this administration is the epigrammatic explanation of Senator Lodge.

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."

THE PLEA THAT CAME TOO LATE

On Saturday, July 29, the United States Senate passed a resolution expressing the hope that the British government "may exercise clemency in the treatment of Irish political prisoners"—meaning Sir Roger Casement. At nine o'clock on the morning of August 3 Sir Roger Casement was hanged. That afternoon the State department received a cablegram from Ambassador Page at London, curtly announcing that he "presented Senate memorandum on Irish prisoners to foreign office at 10 a. m."—an hour after Casement had been executed. The Senate resolution went from the Senate to the White House. The White House sent it over to the State department some time on Wednesday, August 2. In the State department it was mislaid and not recovered until 2 p. m.—which is about eight o'clock London time. At two o'clock it was put on the cable. When it reached London it was too late to transact any official business that day. At nine o'clock Thursday, the following morning, Sir Roger Casement was hanged. An hour later Ambassador Page transmitted to the foreign office the United States Senate's plea for clemency. Fine piece of work!

TAFT IS CONVINCED HE'S OUT OF POLITICS

Chicago, August 28—Former President William H. Taft, here to attend the convention of the American Bar Association, which opens Wednesday, told reporters today that Chicago convinced him he was out of politics. "I walked four blocks through the downtown streets and made one purchase in a store without any one apparently recognizing me," said the former President.

Why not try a Ledger Want Ad?

Everybody needs it—stored for emergency in a well-developed, well-preserved, well-nourished body and brain.

Grape-Nuts food stands preeminent as a builder of this kind of energy. It is made of the entire nutriment of whole wheat and barley, two of the richest sources of food strength.

Grape-Nuts also includes the vital mineral elements of the grain, so much emphasized in these days of investigation of real food values. Crisp, ready to eat, easy to digest, wonderfully nourishing and delicious.

WOOD HEADS BOARD TO PASS JUDGMENT ON NEW INVENTION

Major General Leonard Wood, Commanding Eastern Department.

Washington, August 28—Major General Leonard Wood, commanding the army Eastern Department, has been appointed head of a joint army and navy board to pass judgment upon the radio-controlled torpedo, provision for purchase of which from the inventor, John Hays Hammond, Jr., is made in the fortifications bill recently passed by Congress. If the board reports favorably and President Wilson approves, the War Department is authorized to expend $750,000 for the purchase of exclusive right to manufacture the device.

Members of General Woods' committee are Captain John A. Hoogeveff, Commander David W. Todd and Lieutenant Joseph V. Ogan of the navy, and Lieutenant Colonel George O. Squier, Signal Corps, and Captain Fulton Q. C. Gardner, Coast Artillery.

The Hammond invention is designed to give an additional weapon for coast defense. Army officers witnessed experiments before recommending the purchase of the appliance, during which a small motorboat was driven in any direction at a distance of several miles from shore, responding instantly to the will of a radio operator in the shore station. It is planned to use it to attack hostile battleships, the operator remaining either at a shore station or directing torpedoes from an aeroplane equipped with a radio apparatus.

MCGRAW GIVES DOYLE, HUNTER AND JACOBSON FOR HEINIE ZIMMERMAN

Heinie Zimmerman has finally left the Chicago Cubs, Manager John J. McGraw announced at the Havlin Hotel last night that he had traded Larry Doyle, Hunter, the first baseman, and Mose Jacobson, an outfielder, now at Rochester, to Chicago for the slugging Zim.

The trade was completed over the telephone, President Weeghman acting for the Chicago Club. The passing of Merkle and Doyle from the ranks of the Giants within a few days shows that McGraw is determined to build up a new machine. Both of these veterans have been slowing up and as McGraw wants speed he soon found a way to get it. Zimmerman has been in the big league for many seasons, Frank Chance secured him from the New York State League. He is a wonderful mechanical ball player and can hit 'em a mile. This season he has found it impossible to get along with Manager Tinker and the latter put him on the market. Brooklyn, Boston and Philadelphia have been bidding for him, but the Cub management decided to accept the offer of the New York Club.

For Zimmerman, Tinker secures Doyle, a winning ball player in his day, but he has been slowing up lately. Hunter is a young collegian who has been performing at first base since Merkle left the club. Jacobson is an outfielder and was sent to Rochester under an optional agreement and was recently recalled to report at the end of the International League season.

Zim may join the Giants this morning. If he does, he will be seen in action this afternoon. Manager McGraw recalled the fact last night that Larry Doyle played his first and last game as a member of the New York Club in Cincinnati. New York secured Doyle from Springfield. He reported when the Giants played in Cincinnati and was sent to second base. In his first game he made two unusual plays. Twice with a man on second he shot the ball to Devlin, who was playing third, but Devlin, unused to such work, was not on the bag or he would have got both of them. This didn't dismay the youngster, who immediately proceeded to become one of the best infielders in the league.

A MAYSVILLE INQUIRY Answered By the State of a Maysville Resident.

When first the long series of reports of Maysville people who have been relieved by Doan's Kidney Pills were published in the local press, great enthusiasm and interest were aroused. But Maysville is now inquiring "How are these people keeping today? How has the benefit they received withstood the test of time?" For that, after all, is the essential test of a cure. On this point doubt can no longer exist, for after many years those who have been cured, emphatically declare their cures to be lasting.

Frederick Dresel, 1238 E. Second St., Maysville, says: "I was troubled with inflammation of the bladder and an annoyance from my kidneys. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and I had a severe pain across the small of my back, which interfered with my duties. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Wood & Son's Drug Store and one box gave me prompt relief."

NO TROUBLE SINCE OVER THREE YEARS LATER, Mr. Dresel said: "I haven't had any kidney trouble since I used Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dresel has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

GERMAN ENVOY WEPT IN ROUMANIAN PALACE

London, August 28—Roumania's break with the central powers followed a dramatic scene at the palace of King Ferdinand in Bucharest, according to the Central News. This states that before the final council of Roumanian Ministers was held the German Minister was received by the King.

Weeping the German envoy implored King Ferdinand to maintain Roumanian neutrality, declaring that Hohenzollern should not make war upon Hohenzollern.

The Minister's plea failed. After he departed the council was called and the decision to enter the war was reached almost unanimously.
